Whenever a Board member has an actual or potential financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board, the interested member(s), or any member with knowledge of the interest, should fully disclose to the Board the nature of the interest. After disclosure of the interest and all material facts, the interested member(s) shall leave the meeting while the disinterested Board members decide by majority vote if a conflict of interest exists. If the Board decides a conflict of interest exists, the Board will direct that:

1.No interested Board member may vote or lobby on the matter or be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at the meeting of the Board at which such matter is voted upon;

2.Any matter in which any Board member has a financial or personal interest will only be approved by Board members not so interested and only if it is determined to be in the best interests of the organization;

3.Any approved direct or indirect payments to any interested Board member should be reasonable and not exceed fair market value;

4.The minutes of meetings at which such votes are taken shall record such disclosure, abstention, and rationale for approval.

If the Board has reasonable cause to believe any interested member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it should

If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, the Board shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
